

Nomination for Graduate Faculty

University of Nebraska Graduate College

Graduate Faculty Responsibilities: The Graduate Faculty may vote on any matter presented to the Graduate Faculty, including the election of the Graduate Council for their specific campus. They may also hold any elected office in the Graduate College. Graduate Faculty may teach graduate courses, and chair or serve as voting members on examining committees and supervisory committees. Graduate Faculty have the additional responsibility of voting on certain nominations of Graduate Faculty in their department/school or interdepartmental program.

Graduate Faculty Criteria: The following requirements for the nomination of Graduate Faculty were adopted by the Graduate Faculty to establish consistent standards for faculty members eligible for appointment. A faculty member nominated must meet the following minimum requirements:

1. Hold the rank of Senior Lecturer (Instructor at UNMC), Assistant Professor, or equivalent or above.
2. Hold the terminal degree normally accepted for academic employment in the discipline or its clear equivalent as determined by the Graduate Committee of the nominee's department/school or interdepartmental area.
3. Be actively involved in scholarly activity and/or graduate teaching as part of their regular duties.
4. Have demonstrated clear evidence of continuing scholarly activity and potential in the discipline. Such research/creative activity should be of a quality that would be recognized nationally within the discipline and may include the creation of new knowledge or innovative application of existing knowledge.
