

Fellowship	Description	Selection Criteria
Othmer Fellowships	• Intended for exceptional scholars seeking a terminal degree (i.e., Ph.D., Ed.D, D.M.A, M.F.A.). • Recipients receive, in addition to the departmental assistantship, a $4,000 or $8,000 fellowship per year. • Students retain fellowship for a total of three years, given continued excellent progress toward the degree. • All graduate applicants newly admitted to a doctoral or M.F.A. degree program are eligible for an Othmer Fellowship. • Department must offer an assistantship stipend at least equal to the highest amount offered by the department to first-year students. • The assistantship must be renewable for up to three years.	• Exceptional scholar • Newly admitted doctoral or M.F.A. student • Minimum GPA of 3.5 in previous degree • Excellent letters of recommendation • Student must be offered a department assistantship at the highest level of funding
Chancellor's Fellowships	• Intended for superior graduate students by adding fellowship funds to an assistantship. • Recipients receive, in addition to the departmental assistantship, a $4,000 fellowship per year. • Students retain fellowship for a total of two years, given continued excellent progress toward the degree. • All newly admitted masters or doctoral students are eligible. • Department must offer an assistantship stipend at least equal to the typical level offered by the department to first-year masters or doctoral students. • The assistantship must be renewable for up to two years.	• Newly admitted doctoral or master's student • Excellent academic record • Minimum 3.0 GPA in previous degree • Excellent letters of recommendation • Student must be offered a full department assistantship at the typical level for master's or doctoral students
Edgren Tuition Fellowship	• Available to U.S. citizens who are full-time students and non-residents of Nebraska for tuition purposes. • Students retain the fellowship until graduation if continuously enrolled and maintain excellent progress toward degree. • The value of the fellowship is up to $7,000 per academic year and up to $1,500 per summer, and is credited toward the student's account to offset non-resident tuition. • No work or service requirement associated but student may not accept an assistantship or other tuition waiver benefit.	• Newly admitted full-time domestic doctoral or masters student • Minimum 3.0 GPA in previous degree • Excellent letters of recommendation • Student must be a U. S. citizen or permanent resident